Sept 27

Can you join us for Selichot tomorrow at 7pm? Can you enter into the Holy Days with us starting with Selichot prayer and song? It would be wonderful to see you at the shul tomorrow at 7pm as we symbolically walk through this portal, hand in hand, on our way to Rosh HaShanah on Wednesday at 7pm at the Berkshire South Community Center. We'll use some familiar melodies to the holidays and simply be together in this special time. Can you give this to yourself...?

On a very different note, scammers are sending messages seemingly from me asking for bogus information...delete immediately. I will never email you like that so do not even open it if it looks suspicious.

Wishing us all a Shabbat Shalom and a healthy, peaceful, and meaningful High Holy Day season and peace in the Middle East and return of the hostages.

With love and see you soon, Barbara
